

	PŘÍKAZ GENERÁLNÍHO MANAŽERA GENERAL MANAGER DIRECTIVE	Číslo/No.: P-GeM 2010-04
		List/Page: 1 z/of: 1
	Název/Title: Environmentální politika / Environment policy	Vydání/Issue: 4
		Datum/Date: 21. 1. 2015

Environment policy comes from the strategy of company management. Top management Rompa CZ s. r. o. aims at long term keeping profitability, competitive strength, safety and accountable for business in the field of processing plastics and production moulds. The top management is fully conscious of share of responsibility for position and development of environment which is influenced by company's business activities. That's why company determinates this environment policy and professes to keeping of these principles:

1. Application environmental management system

- create conditions for filling and keeping of environment policy system
- application environmental attitude in all areas permanent and consider this attitude as a basic in next expansion of the company
- regular revise and check environment policy from meaningful environment aspects and filling environment's targets and target's values
- ask for responsible approach to environmentalist by our business partners

2. Respect valid legislature

- reach harmony in all company's activities according to valid legislature (laws, public notices, statutes) with environmentalist; this harmony long term keeping, monitoring and rating

3. Reduce negativ influences an environmental by company's activities

- all company's activities aim at long term reducing of risks
- reduce demands of energy, material and raw material by production updating and effective using of production equipment, reduce waste, reduce drawing of natural sources
- ensure safe manipulation with waste in places where waste is loaded

4. Value company's impact on environmental

- value company's impact on environmental by planned actions, new projects, changes in technology, repairs, launch new products or their components before final decisions
- products which are launched implement by view of environmental to minimize their impact on environmental by production, transportation, storage, expedition, using and liquidation

5. Continuously improve environmental management system

- ensure continuously improve environmental management system and implement environmental system to all company's activities
- prefer prevention of contamination ahead of following measures
- orientate basic management strategy on innovation which are aimed at minimalization of raw material, reduce waste, increase use value of our products and services
- apply the best progress and technology
- enforce these environmental principles by all employees, environmental principles break in training programme

Zpracoval/Prepared by: Marek Králík, ZEMS	Schválil/Approved by: Malcolm Ford, General manager	Účinnost od/Effective from: 21. 1. 2015
--	--	--